Learn about 2026 special benefit rates for automobile allowance, clothing allowance, and Medal of Honor pension.

Current rates

Automobile allowance

Effective October 1, 2025

If you have a service-connected disability that prevents you from driving, we may pay up to $27,074.99 toward a specially equipped vehicle for you.

Note: The seller of the specially equipped vehicle needs to submit a claim to us. Then we pay them a one-time payment directly.

Clothing allowance

Effective December 1, 2025

If a skin medicine, prosthetic, or orthopedic device related to your service-connected disability damages your clothes, we may pay you $1,053.19 to replace the damaged clothes. This may be a one-time payment or we may pay this amount once a year.

Note: You'll need to submit your application on or before August 1, 2026, to get a clothing allowance for this year.

Medal of Honor pension

Effective December 1, 2025

If you've received the Medal of Honor, we may pay you an additional $5,780.00 each month.

Note: We adjust the Medal of Honor pension to make sure your benefits keep up with inflation. These adjustments match the percentage of cost-of-living adjustments for your Social Security benefits.
